Rural School Examination

The final county examination for the seventh and eighth grade pupils will be held March 22 and 23. The following parties will conduct said examination:

Sedgewickville public school, Beulah Seabaugh and Elia Miller.

Conrad school, district No. 3, Virginia Blackburn and Hannah McGraw.

Patton public school, Alice C. Murray and F. M. Jones.

Hawn school, district No. 28, Mary J. Murray and Ernest Caenren.

Scopus school, district No. 33, L. C. Bridges and Roscoe Pierce.

Marble Hill public school, Walter E. Revelle and county superintendent.

Leopold public school, Bernard L. Hotze and Franklin Sitze.

Grassy school, district No. 54, W. W. Patterson and E. E. Dunn.

Eaker school, district No. 67, Willie Robison and Noah Myers.

Zaltman school, Ervin Fish and Blanche Watts.

Greenbrier school, J. K. Wells and Eli Williams.

Dongola school, George Bidwell and Willie Wampler.

The seventh grade pupils are urged to take the first day's examination as it is the seventh grade work. The grades made this year will be held to your credit and next year you will only have to write on the eighth grade work. Eighth grade pupils this year must take both seventh and eighth grade examination in order to complete the public school course.

Yours truly,

WILBUR M. WELLS,
3d
County Supt.

Omer Lutes, Lutesville, Mo.

Where all our love zones with angels be;

Over the river, the mystic river,

Our household's id is waiting for me,

I shall waken for the gleam of the fragrance walls,

I shall hear the best as it gains the strength,

I shall pass from sight with the boatman pale.

To the better shore of the spirit land,

I shall know dear Effie and loved ones gone before.

And joyfully sweet will the meeting be,

When over the river, the peaceful river,

The angel of death shall carry me.

A Buccon.
